VIDEO: Superior Tool Life in ISO P Materials – CoroDrill® 860 PM

Brought To You by Sandvik Coromant | Sep 20, 2022

The new CoroDrill® 860 PM from Sandvik Coromant features a new PVD coating and grade that results in better wear resistance, tool life and an increase in overall productivity. Moreover, it will help achieve lower cost per component. The drill is minimum quantity lubrication (MQL) ready. Watch it in action in the short video above (music only, no transcript).
