VIDEO: TOOLING UP – The Best Vice for Your 5-Axis Mill

| Jul 26, 2023

Video Highlights

In this episode of MSC's Tooling Up, Toni Neary is joined by Jergens Vice President Matt Schron and Product Manager Mike Antos for a discussion on the 5CV Self-Centering Vice.

Toni, Matt and Mike explore the game-changing 5CV Self-Centering Vice and how Jergens is revolutionizing the industry, reducing setup times from hours to minutes. Discover their advanced workholding devices for five-axis machining, featuring quick change jaws and patented technology, helping you save time and money while optimizing your operations. The trio also discuss what sets Jergens apart in the manufacturing industry, and how their approach of "standard components with the highest standards" have enabled their success since 1942. Don't miss out on this episode filled with cutting-edge innovations and expert insights from Jergens.
