

Regulatory Compliance

Video: OSHA Walking-Working Surfaces Summary

Brought To You by 3M | Jul 03, 2018

Video Highlights

The final rule from OSHA on walking and working surfaces is in. The rule covers the general industry workplace, including floors, stairs, ladders, ramps, elevated walkways and scaffolds. The goal is to reduce slips, trips, falls, injuries and fatalities caused by walking-working surface hazards.

Find out the major changes in OSHA's final rule to update general industry walking-working surfaces and fall protection standards.

www.mscdirect.com/betterMRO

Copyright ©2025 MSC Industrial Supply Co.