

Job Connection

Women in the Workforce

Brought To You By National Market Company | Apr 25, 2019

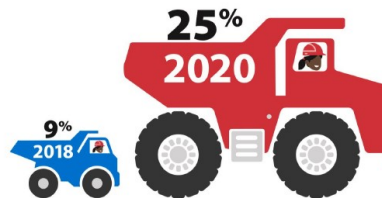

The overall number of women employees in the U.S. is projected to increase by over 5 million by 2020, with women expected to make up to 25% of the construction industry.

The overall number of women employees in the U.S. is projected to increase by over 5 million by 2020.

Gender diverse companies are about 15% more likely to have financial returns higher than national industry averages.

Women are expected to make up 25% of the construction industry by 2020.

In the U.S., women hold 30% of STEM degrees, but constitute only 14.5% of the labor force in oil and gas.

Just by adding more women to the workforce, the global GDP could go up by 26%.

Women made up 41% of the food manufacturing industry in 2018.

